

MONTHLY STUDY GUIDE

ELEMENTARY ENGLISH IABPV

OCTOBER 2026 | GRADE 2 | CLAUDIA TREJO

This month we will be learning these things in English class:

ENGLISH	SCIENCE & SOCIAL STUDIES
Unit 2: Where do wild animals live? Learning Objectives: I will understand short, simple descriptions of objects, people, and animals if supported by pictures. I will describe where an animal lives in a simple way. I will write simple sentences to describe an animal's appearance. Vocabulary: crocodile, kangaroo, panda, snake, cheetah, seal, camel, whale, angry, smart, fat, thin, funny, lazy, dangerous, strong. Grammar: - I can use "their," "your," "our," "its" with a few simple objects. - I can ask for information about time, measurement, size, etc. with "how" + adjective/quantifier.	Unit 2: Alive or not alive? Learning objectives: I will identify living and non-living things. I will investigate the characteristics of living things. I will identify non-living things that were once alive. I will identify what living things do. Vocabulary: living, non-living, classify, needs, move, grow, produce babies, get older, change, once alive, fossil, materials, young, adults, seed, tree, similar, different, life cycle, baby, child, adolescent.
Unit 3: How does the weather change? Learning Objectives: I will understand simple sentences about the weather, if supported by pictures. I will say what the weather is like using basic phrases. I will write simple sentences about what people are wearing, given prompts or a model. Vocabulary: windy, foggy, thunder, lightning, storm, hail, sleet, tornado, scarf, cap, sunglasses, sweat suit, sneakers, flip-flops, robe, slippers. Grammar: - I can use "It's ..." with adjectives and verbs in the "-ing" form to refer to weather. - I can use "I'm wearing ..." with common items of clothing.	Social Studies: Wear the right clothes for the weather. ENGLISH PROJECT Do an animal presentation. Materials: pencil, colors, pictures or drawings of the animal, poster board Instructions will be sent through CRI. Due date: Wednesday, October 28, 2026